

The Elliott White Springs Prize

USC Lancaster is proud to announce the sixteenth annual Elliott White Springs Prize. This annual writing competition is dedicated to Colonel Elliott White Springs in recognition of his contributions to American fiction. Springs, born in Lancaster in 1896, was a well-known writer of fiction during the 1920s. His stories were semibiographical, blending fiction and factual episodes.

The mission of the contest in his honor is to support and encourage writers by offering annually a cash award of $100.00 to a currently enrolled USC Lancaster student. All prose genres (short stories, essays, memoirs) are welcome.
