Disability and Special Needs Scholarships

USC Lancaster awards a number of academic scholarships to students with documented disabilities. If you are a student with special needs and are in good academic standing, find out if one of these scholarships is right for you. Scholarships are available to students with:

- Impaired mobility of a permanent nature, including use of a wheelchair
- Speech or hearing impairment
- Physical, emotional, psychological, or learning disability

For more information on how to apply for these scholarships, contact:
