

The role of housing in adaptive functioning of persons with serious mental illness: Statewide study of supportive housing affiliated with SC Department of Mental Health

Presented by:

Brett Kloos, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, University of South Carolina Columbia

Date:

November 19, 2007

Time:

5:30pm

Location:

The Carole Ray Dowling Center

University of South Carolina Lancaster

509 Hubbard Drive, Lancaster, SC 29720

Free to the public and all USCL Students
Dinner will be provided by Limericks

1.5 hours of continuing education credit are available for Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Professional Counselors, and Psycho-Educational Specialist: $10 fee

Sponsored by the University of South Carolina Lancaster Psychology Club and Mental Health America of Lancaster County.

For more information contact Mark Coe at 313-7057 or visit him in the Counseling Center in Starr Hall.